TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The leper will dwell apart, making an abode outside the camp (Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46).

Psalms — I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation (Psalm 32).

Second Reading — Do everything for the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31 – 11:1).

Gospel — The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean (Mark 1:40-45).

GIVE GOD THE GLORY

A curious feature of the first half of Mark's Gospel is the pattern of Jesus working a miracle, then telling the recipient of the miracle to keep still about it. Many theories have been offered: Mark is setting the stage for the great "secret" revealed when Peter will proclaim Jesus the Messiah at Caesarea Philippi; more skeptical commentators offer that Jesus, fully aware of human nature, knew that the way to spread the news was to tell people to keep it secret. The insight into this secret-keeping that serves us well, however, is that Jesus was initiating his public ministry according to the pattern that Paul describes. He was doing it for the glory of God—not for his own benefit, but for that of all. Paul would later write in Philippians that Jesus "humbled" himself to become like us. And we see this humility at work in today's healing of the leper. Jesus is trying to reveal the presence of God's reign among the people, not so that he himself might receive the glory, but so that God would be glorified through him. Imitating this pattern, which Paul encourages the Jewish and Greek Christian factions in Corinth to do, still serves us well today.

Announcements

February 14 is ASH WEDNESDAY, which marks the beginning of the Season of Lent.

Mass will be celebrated at OLGC at 7:30 am, 9:30 am, 5:00 pm and 7:00 pm. Ash Wednesday is a season of penance, reflection, and fasting, which prepares us for Christ's Resurrection on Easter Sunday. The Church prescribes fasting (only one full meal and two smaller meals which together are not greater than a full meal) and abstinence from meat on Ash Wednesday. Catholics aged 18-59 are bound to fast; those 14 and older to abstinence. Those who are ill are freed from these obligations. Everyone, even those above the age of 59, are encouraged to fast and abstain. Source: rcav.org

TAX RECEIPTS The 2017 tax receipts are ready for pick-up at the parish office.

CATHOLIC BOOK FAIR Meet the Daughters of St. Paul sisters, who will bring with them their media mission of communicating Christ with their life using all forms of media on February 10 and 11 after the Vigil and Sunday masses! They will have a display of Catholic Books – spirituality, prayer, children's, bibles, Lives of Saints, DVDs and CDs as well as a material to help you dive in deep this Lenten season. The sisters also have digital media available to download like Music, Apps, and e-books. Search "Pauline Books and Media" in your App store or in iTunes.
