NOT AGAINST US

Like Moses before him, Jesus corrects his disciples' misunderstanding of the gift of the Spirit. They saw people who were not of their company casting out demons and doing other works such as Jesus had done. Jesus points out that no one who does a good deed in his name can be opposed to him at the same time. He goes on to point out the importance of the "little ones," the poor, simple people, children, the meek ones who are not important in the world. It is to them that he was sent, not to the wealthy and the self-righteous. He underscores the importance of small works done in faith, as well as big works like driving out demons. "Anyone who gives you a cup of water . . . because you belong to Christ . . . will surely not lose his reward" (Mark 9:41). God builds the coming reign little by little in our actions, however small and unassuming, when they are done out of love of God and neighbor. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

WELCOME ARCHBISHOP MILLER Archbishop Miller will begin a four-day canonical visit of our parish on Thursday evening, 4 October. He will meet with the leaders of various parish organizations on Friday and Saturday and meet with all lectors, extraordinary ministers of communion and ushers at 2:30 pm on Saturday. He will also celebrate the 9 am Mass on Friday and Saturday mornings. At the Saturday morning Mass, he will share the anointing of the sick with people who are ill or aging. He will conclude the visitation with the celebration of the 11:15 am Mass on Sunday.

LIFE CHAIN On Sunday, September 30, pro-lifers at over 200 locations from coast to coast will participate in Life Chain, praying silently for an hour while holding non-graphic signs with messages such as: "Abortion kills children," "Abortion hurts women," and "Life: the first inalienable right." Although Life Chain is usually on the first Sunday of October, due to Thanksgiving this year, it will be held earlier. This simple, peaceful witness provides an opportunity for young and old to remind their fellow community members of the inherent dignity of every human being, and our duty to defend the vulnerable. Please join us in this effort, and promote this event among friends and family members. Please join us from 2:00 – 3:00 pm on King George Blvd. from 104 Ave to 96 Ave.
