ENCOURAGEMENT

This Sunday's Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel's time. The encouragement in these scriptures is meant for us as well, for none of us will escape tribulation in our lives. Followers of Jesus will be able to endure suffering with joyful hope, knowing that Christ's love will lead us along the way of discipleship and give us eternal life with God. Copyright © J. S. Announcements

PROJECT ADVANCE supports charitable work in the archdiocese like prison and hospital ministry and assistance to refugees and migrant workers. We remember our Lord's words to his disciples in the last parable He ever told, "whatever you do for one of the least important of my brothers and sisters, that you do for Me." (Matthew 25:40). Please consider supporting Project Advance with a donation. There is still time. Just take a Project Advance envelope from the back of the church, fill out the information and put your donation inside. Then simply put in the collection basket on any Sunday. You can claim a tax receipt for donations made before 31 December. Thanks for your support.

FORMED OLGC is committed to helping all parishioners to understand, live, and share their faith. And so we subscribed to FORMED.org. It has a comprehensive list of anything Catholic that is effective and helpful for ministry. There are lots of study programs, movies, documentaries, talks, audio dramas, podcasts, books, etc. for adults and kids all in one place. FORMED is a great resource that can be shared with family and friends. And learnings could start interesting conversations and study groups. You will be proud to be Catholic and share the Good News!!
