TODAY'S READINGS
First Reading You shall not oppress an alien, for you yourselves were once aliens in Egypt (Exodus 22:20-26).
Psalm I love you, Lord, my strength (Psalm 18).
Second Reading You became imitators of the Lord, so that you became a model for all believers (1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10).
Gospel You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:34-40).

BALANCE
Today's scriptures emphasize the fundamental link between love of God and love of our neighbors, especially those who are most in need. Love of God should compel us to love the people whom God cherishes. Conversely, work for justice and charity for those in need should be rooted in our love of God.

The connection and balance, however, isn't always easy to maintain in our lives. Even in religious orders we find that some Christians are more oriented toward contemplation and prayer, while others are more active in reaching out to those who are oppressed. Today, Jesus reminds us of the necessity for both in the life of faith. Copyright © J.S. Paluch Co.
