Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 19, 2023
Blessed are you who fear the Lord. Psalm 128:1a

TODAY'S READINGS
First Reading The woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. (Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31).
Psalm Blessed are those who fear the Lord. (Psalm 128).
Second Reading Brothers and sisters, you are the children of light (1 Thessalonians 5:1-6).
Gospel To all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance (Matthew 25:14-30 [14-15, 19-21]).

SHARING OUR GIFTS
Autumn is the season for harvesting and sharing the fruits of our labors. This week's scriptures use images of the harvest, family life, pregnancy, and investment to describe the abundant harvest in the reign of God. We discover that sharing the gifts we have been given brings eternal rewards for everyone.

In the Gospel parable, a master entrusts his possessions to three servants before going on a journey. Each is given some talents. What they do with those talents determines what the master will do with them when he returns. How about us? What are we doing with our talents? How will our Master treat us when he returns?

OLGC is very active in addressing the needs of the poor: We gathered 48 boxes of food for the Food Bank during our recent food drive, we have a great relationship with Surrey Urban Mission which provides meals to the homeless, we have raised thousands of dollars for ANCOF so that families in the poorer countries might have a place of their own.
